

OUR CLUB ETHOS

Ranelagh Gaels is committed to active lifelong participation in Gaelic games for all, and to providing the best facilities available. We are committed to ensuring diversity and inclusion are built into our club, by seeking to reach out to and include all members of our society - in our club there is a place for everyone, regardless of age, cultural and ethnic background, gender, and sexual orientation. We promote individual development and well-being and strive to enable all of our members to achieve their full potential in their chosen club roles, be that as players on the pitch, club officers off the pitch, or helping hands in-between. We are open to, and rooted in, our community and are proud to make a positive impact on it and on the lives of our members.

Ranelagh Gaels has signed up to the Sport Ireland Sport Inclusion Disability Charter, which can be viewed below.
